

Access to Social Security

(2208)            The 16th FIM Congress recognizes the general trend that the possibilities for access to social security are diminishing, particularly for artists. Congress wants to ensure that performing artists will at least have access to the same level of social security as all other workers. Because musicians mostly have an irregular income, there must be specific regulations in all the countries to ensure that musicians receive unemployment and sickness benefits.