

Employment of National Musicians for Musical Productions on Tour

(2215) The 16th FIM Congress is of the opinion that producers of Musicals who organize tours that last many weeks or even months should be required to include musicians of the host countries when setting up their orchestras.