

Definition of a «Musical» Production

(2216) Congress declares that the only acceptable definition of a musical theater production, usually known to the public as “A Musical” is: a theater production the components of which are live acting, dancing, singing and playing.